Dr. Nicole Molumby is Professor at Boise State University, teaching flute and ear training. Internationally, she has performed in Slovenia, Croatia, Norway, Austria, and the UK. She recently completed a CD project entitled Awakening: 21st Century Slovenian Flute Music with the MSR Classic Records Label that was inspired by the creative and contemporary music of Slovenian composers Blaž Pucihar, Črt Sojar Voglar, and Peter Kopač. In 2012, she received an Idaho Commission on the Arts Fellowship in Performing Arts, as well as a Boise State Arts and Humanities Fellowship for her contributions and performances of newly commissioned flute music by Slovenian Composers Blaž Pucihar and Črt Sojar Voglar. Performance engagements have included principal flute at the Classical Music Festival in Eisenstadt, Austria; substitute flute with the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra; National Flute Association National Convention; and College Music Society Board Member for Performance. She is a faculty member at Passion Flute Summer Course since 2010 with flutists Angeleita Floyd, Jill Felber, and Claudia Anderson.
